JUNE 10–14, 2026

TPC TORONTO AT OSPREY VALLEY

CALEDON, ONTARIO

The 2026 RBC Canadian Open added another memorable chapter to the rich history of Canada's National Open Championship. As a cornerstone host venue, TPC Toronto at Osprey Valley once again provided a world-class stage for an outstanding field of international competitors, further reinforcing the RBC Canadian Open's stature on the global golf landscape.

My sincere thanks to the volunteers, sponsors, partners, and supporters whose dedication and commitment continue to drive the success of this championship. For nearly two decades, RBC has played a leading role in delivering a best-in-class tournament experience alongside our valued tournament and government partners. Together, they helped make the 115th playing of Canada's National Open Championship a tremendous success and a powerful reflection of the passion and strength of the Canadian golf community.

Congratulations to our champion Bud Cauley on earning his place in Canadian golf history. We look forward to welcoming players, fans, partners, media, and volunteers back to TPC Toronto at Osprey Valley for the 2027 RBC Canadian Open, one of Canada's premier sporting events.

Hosting the 2026 RBC Canadian Open was another remarkable milestone in our ongoing history and represents our shared commitment to continuous improvement with our partners at Golf Canada, RBC and the PGA TOUR. We were honoured to once again welcome our partners, players, the public and so many other stakeholders to our property and are incredibly proud of the event generating a positive impact throughout our community.

A New Era for Golf in Canada

Golf Canada has officially opened the doors to its new national headquarters at TPC Toronto at Osprey Valley, marking a new era for the sport with the creation of a Home of Canadian Golf. The campus unites Golf Canada with the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame, First Tee – Canada, the new Talon Links Community Putting Park, and a key partner in TPC Toronto at Osprey Valley in a collaborative space dedicated to growing the game.

The Rink

» The iconic Rink Hole (No. 14) has become a staple at the RBC Canadian Open, combining the country's love of hockey and golf. Fans can sit in stadium seating, bang on rink boards, and sing "O Canada" as players step up to the tee, creating a stadium atmosphere bursting with pride. A true celebration of Canadian culture, The Rink delivers birdies, noise, and unforgettable moments.

« David Lipsky
The Rink's first hole-in-one occurred at the 2026 RBC Canadian Open—3,347 attempts after the first shot was struck.

Enhanced Family Experience

The RBC Canadian Open is proud to deliver an enhanced family experience, making the tournament a welcoming destination for fans of all ages. New additions such as the Talon Links Community Putting Park and an expanded Family Zone created more ways for families to play, explore and enjoy the event together. Through interactive activities and fun opportunities for kids to participate, the tournament introduced young fans to the game of golf and helped inspire the next generation.

Golf Canada Gala Presented by DCM

The Golf Canada Gala offered a distinguished celebration of the continued growth and advancement of golf in Canada, including the vision and a closer look at the new Home for Canadian Golf at TPC Toronto. The evening recognized the achievements, leadership, and collective momentum shaping the future of the sport, while honouring the individuals, partners, and programs driving meaningful progress across the Canadian golf community. It was a fitting tribute to a sport that continues to inspire excellence, expand participation, and strengthen its impact from coast to coast.
